About the Hellenic-German Chamber of Commerce and Industry:

The Hellenic-German Chamber was founded in 1924 with the aim of promoting and developing the trade and business relations of the two countries. The Chamber, which processes about 15,000 commercial requests a year, is the official representative of the largest exhibition organizations in Germany and provides legal and commercial / economic advice.

Advises, supports, and represents companies wishing to expand their business internationally. The EACs are institutions for the promotion of German and Greek trade relations.

The network of German Chambers of Commerce Abroad (AHK), consisting of bilateral Chambers of Commerce and representations of German companies, advises, supports and represents German companies worldwide wishing to expand their foreign business activities. The EACs are institutions for the promotion of German trade relations. The German Chamber of Commerce and Industry e. V. (DIHK) continues to coordinate and develop the network of German Chambers of Commerce abroad. They are subsidized proportionally by the Federal Ministry of Economy and Energy (BMWi).
